Re: December 17, 1986 Publication Agreement, as amended, now in effect between Novell, Inc. ("Novell") and Prentice-Hall, Inc. ("Prentice-Hall")

Dear Mr. Doench::

As you may know, Novell transferred to The Santa Cruz Operation, Inc. ("SCO") its existing ownership interest in UNIX System-based offerings and related products as listed in Attachment A of this letter ("collectively "Transferred Products").

It makes immeasurably more business sense for SCO, as the owner of the Transferred Products, to handle directly with Prentice-Hall any matters that may become relevant under the subject Agreement. Accordingly, Novell would appreciate Prentice-Hall's formal concurrence under Section 28 of the subject Agreement, to Novell's assignment of its rights and delegation of any remaining obligations under the subject Agreement insofar as such rights and obligations relate to the Transferred Products, to SCO. Novell represents that SCO has undertaken in writing to assume such obligations.

Since Prentice-Hall's interests under the subject Agreement continue to be protected, we assume that Prentice-Hall has no problem with this request. Accordingly, please indicate Prentice-Hall's concurrence by signing and dating a copy of this letter and returning such signed copy to:

Ms. Mei Negishi
